

2017 Gala & Auction - October 12, 2017

About Us

CAAIF's mission is to improve the health and healthcare of Canadians by advancing the quality, relevance and application of research in allergy, asthma and immunology. To date, CAAIF has awarded over one million dollars to top Canadian researchers working in these areas.

A Growing Concern

Allergies and asthma are at an all-time high, yet funding for research and clinical care is decreasing.

Three million Canadians suffer from asthma, which is the leading cause of ER visits and hospitalizations in children.

One in 13 Canadians live with food allergies and 50% of Canadian households are affected.

Families, schools, and communities struggle to deal with rising rates of allergies and asthma.
